

Fractional Shares Disclosure

ST Invest LLC

We may allow you to purchase securities in dollar amounts rather than share quantities. We only accept market orders for fractional shares. Limit orders for fractional shares are not allowed. Orders entered outside of regular trading hours cannot be executed until the market opens for regular trading. We round the amount of fractional shares you can purchase and own in your account down to the nearest four decimal places which may affect your ability to be credited for cash dividends, stock dividends and stock splits. Fractional shares are not transferrable. You will not have voting rights for the fraction of a share owned. If you close your account or transfer your account to another firm, the fractional share will need to be liquidated, resulting in potential commission charges which may match or exceed the value of our minimum commission.

Additional fees and charges may apply to execute and/or settle your fractional trade and/or position. Please take into consideration potential for split and reverse split adjustments to the positions in your account or open orders for securities that may be in reorganization. Fractional share orders are subject to volatility and other market conditions that may result in restrictions, suspension of trading, and other potential for delays in execution and/or reporting.

Processing of stock splits and dividends may be delayed or impeded due to a variety of reasons, including, but not limited to, the actual amount of an executed order. Participation in reverse splits are not guaranteed either in whole or in part. You alone are responsible for understanding the terms of a securities reorganization or stock/dividend payment.

ST Invest reserves the right to limit the securities available for fractional share trading at any time, including for securities held in your account which may have been purchased on a fractional share basis preceding the restriction.
